

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3

18:00 - 20:00

ARRIVAL AND REGISTRATION
Salon Earl Grey (Minto Suite Hotel - Ottawa)

20:00

RECEPTION HOSTED BY THE CCEA
Salon Earl Grey (Minto Suite Hotel - Ottawa)

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4

7:30 ARRIVAL AND REGISTRATION
Salon Lisgar/Massey (Minto Suite Hotel - Ottawa)

Canada Parks Council and Parks Canada response to Climate Change
Karen Keenleyside, Parks Canada Agency

8:30 WELCOME AND OPENING REMARKS

Welcome from the CCEA
Karen Beazley, Dalhousie University & CCEA Board Member

12:30 LUNCH (Provided)

Environment Canada Address
Robert Mclean, A/Director General, Canadian Wildlife Service, Environment Canada

13:30 CLIMATE CHANGE SCIENCE AND MODELLING

Assessing shoreline vulnerability for British Columbia
Pamela A. Wright, University of Northern British Columbia

9:15 OPENING CONTEXT AND PERSPECTIVES

Global Perspectives on Climate Change
Protected Areas as a Natural Solution
Nikita Lopoukhine - Chair, IUCN World Commission on Protected Areas

Linking global climate models to protected area research: Ideas and Approaches
Adam Fenech, Environment Canada

The role of private conservation lands in climate change adaptation and mitigation
John Riley - Chief Science Officer and National Director, Nature Conservancy of Canada

Implications of Ecological Shifts for Conservation Planning in Canada
Kathy Lindsay, Environment Canada

10:15 BREAK (Provided)

Climate Change Monitoring With a Limited Budget
Pamela A. Wright, University of Northern British Columbia

10:30 CLIMATE CHANGE INITIATIVES

Protected Areas and Climate Change in Canada
Challenges and Opportunities for Adaptation
Chris Lemieux, University of Waterloo - Thomas Beechey, Nature Matters - Daniel Scott, University of Waterloo - Paul Gray, Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources

15:30 BREAK (Provided)

15:45 CANADIAN OPPORTUNITIES AND DISCUSSION

The Canadian opportunity: Embracing large land and seascape-scale conservation as a climate change solution
Allison Woodley & Chris Henschel
Canadian Parks and Wilderness Society (CPAWS)

Climate Change initiatives in Ontario Parks & Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources
Karen Hartley & Paul Gray, Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources

Facilitated Discussion of key points and path forward
Karen Beazley Ph.D, Dalhousie University

British Conservation Philosophy and Practice and its Relevance to Canada
Norman Henderson - Director, Prairie Adaptation Research Collaborative

17:00 WRAP-UP

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4 CONTINUED -- BANQUET

18:00

Banquet with keynote speaker and CCEA "Gold Leaf" Awards

Keynote speaker "Building the best parachute in Bedlam"

Stephen Woodley

Chief Scientist, Parks Canada Agency

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5

8:30

Opening Remarks & Objectives

David MacKinnon, Government of Nova Scotia & CCEA Chair

9:00

Climate Change Plenary - Summary / Path Forward

Karen Beazley, Dalhousie University

9:30

WORKSHOP RESULTS & REPORTING

IUCN Guidebook Version 2

Jacques Perron, Ministry of Sustainable Development, Environment and Parks

Marine Network Planning

Mary Rothfels, Fisheries and Oceans Canada

Protected Area Data Management

Robert Helie, Environment Canada

10:30

BREAK (Provided)

10:45

CCEA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

CCEA Jurisdictional Roundtable

All Participants

CCEA Financial Statement

John Vandall, CCEA Treasurer

CCEA Elections

David MacKinnon, Government of Nova Scotia & CCEA Chair

12:00

END

END