About the CCEA

The Canadian Council on Ecological Areas (CCEA) was incorporated in 1982 as a national, non-profit organization with a mission "to facilitate and assist Canadians with the establishment and management of a comprehensive network of protected areas representative of Canada's terrestrial and aquatic ecological natural diversity". It became a registered, charitable organization in 1995. More information can be found at www.ccea.org.

About Stan Rowe

Dr. J. Stan Rowe

June 11, 1918 – April 6, 2004

Widely known for his book, Forest Regions of Canada, Dr. Rowe gained special notoriety for his later writings on ethics and conservation, which demonstrate his intimate insight of ecology and the caring attitude that we need to adopt as environmental stewards. Dr. Rowe's vision and leadership are a true inspiration for preserving wilderness in Canada.
